Venue: Home of Paul Wheeler in Macandrew Bay

“This group is for people who enjoy listening to music and are interested in broadening their musical horizons. The course doesn’t assume any formal musical training.

The emphasis is on classical music, but there are many times when the content shifts to popular music, jazz, musical theatre, international and other types of music, depending on the current topic.

Themes have included one-off topics, as well as more extended series that trace the development of music in the social, political or cultural context of its time.

The sessions are designed to be entertaining as well as extending the knowledge of participants.

Paul’s career included a significant period specialising in music education and he is still involved in performing in the community.”

The group is limited to eight members. Sessions are on the second Monday of each month and last 1½ - 2 hours.
