Seeking volunteers

Come and join the Friends of the Medical School volunteer group!

Are you over 18 and willing to share your health experiences with 2nd and 3rd year medical students to help train our future doctors?

Please contact us if you have experienced any of the following:

- health problems
- chronic illness
- living with disability
- receiving home-based care
- changes to your lifestyle to lose weight

All conversations are private and confidential. If you are interested in participating, please complete the short survey or contact us.
