

Dunedin has joined the many cities in the world in which a University of the Third Age has been founded

Beginning in France in the mid seventies the U3A movement has now spread to most countries and has many hundreds of thousands of members.

U3A is a response to the idea that human life is divided into three periods: firstly, childhood and schooling; secondly, child rearing and work; and thirdly retirement.

The third age is seen to provide the greatest opportunities for learning and understanding because it is during this period of retirement that the idea of a university as a community of those who seek greater understanding through learning can be put into practice.

The unique characteristics of U3A

- Learning topics are selected by the members
- Indepth courses are planned by members
- Opportunities for reading, research and discussion are provided
- Presenters/facilitators are usually members of the groups
- The company of others who enjoy learning is ensured
- The atmosphere for learning is informal and friendly
- There are no examinations
- There are no compulsory activities
- Courses take place during daylight hours
- Costs are minimal and within the reach of everybody

The Programme

Central Otago.

This course will look at Central Otago from several different perspectives - Wildlife, Painting, Geography, Geology, Goldmining.

There will also be a two day bus trip with an overnight stay in Alexandra.

The route via Palmerston, the Pigroot (diverting past Macraes) and lunching at Clyde. Returning to Alexandra for dinner, and a meeting with Central U3A people. The following day to Queenstown and then lunch at Gibbston (plus a tour of the caves) and back to Dunedin via Roxburgh.

The costing of this course includes bus, wine tour, meals and accomodation (which is twin share at Centennial Court Alexandra) If a person prefers a unit to themselves the cost will be an additional $30.
