POETRY READING GROUP

This is a group for people who enjoy reading poetry aloud, listening to other people reading it, and talking about what they hear.

Please come to the first session prepared to introduce a poem to the group by saying how it appeals to you, then reading it aloud. The poem should take no more than three minutes to read, and the introduction no more than two.

At our initial session we will discuss details of future sessions. We could, for example, agree to have a topic for each week. Some possibilities are:

- poems from a particular period or country
- poems on a theme such as love, war, nature, animals
- poems relating to a particular mood such as humorous, sad, indignant
- or we could stay with unlimited choice every time.

At our first session we can also decide how much, or what kind of, discussion we would be comfortable with and how this relates to the time available which, in turn, will depend partly on the number in the group.
