

Members' Enthusiasms

- June 12th Doug Holborow: "Sinking and Swimming: Scuba and Snorkelling"
Barrie Peake: "The life of Meccano"
- June 19th Colin Fitzpatrick: "What is happening to our Honey Bees?" The fascinating story of bee-keeping"
- June 26th Brian Robinson: "From Swamp to Chanel No 7"
"Perfumes have Top, Middle & Bottom 'notes'. We will look at a New Zealand bottom note, and a unique NZ stink, and see where they might fit within the world of fragrances & flavours."
Bill McKinlay: "A Load of Old Cobblers".
- July 3rd Brian Tidmarsh : "A 300 year journey through history via oriental rugs and Japanese gardens. Antique colonial furniture and model aeroplanes and ships"
- July 10th Keith Jeffery: "Fascinated by Old Maps and their Stories". From Medieval world maps to maps of the Spice Islands. From Captain Cook to Victorian Dunedin and Sir James Hector. Maps to see and illustrated stories to tell."
- July 17th Robin Harvey and Tessa Petersen: "Violins: how they are made (Robin) and how they are played (Tessa)"