Off the Beaten Track

The title says it all!

The brief to our speakers is to share their experience of some of the world's out of the way places, and embellish them with their personal likes and dislikes. You will not hear a "If this is Tuesday, it must Paris" travelogue.

The response from our members has been amazing, with speakers for a possible second course queuing up. Attend this course, and you may be moved to join them.

The sessions will be divided into two – the first speaker before afternoon tea, the second after.
