Off the Beaten Track - #2

Presented by various well-travelled U3A members

The title says it all!

The brief to our speakers is to share their experience of some of the world's out of the way places, and embellish them with their personal likes and dislikes. You will not hear an "If this is Tuesday, it must Paris" travelogue.

The response to the first series last year from our members was both appreciative and positive. Our aim is to offer the same course, if possible at a higher standard. You be the judge.
